

Be a Marin Headlands Intern

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Volunteers in Parks
Golden Gate National Recreation Area

Be a Park Hero

The Marin Headlands, part of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area, encompasses 12,000 acres of open space, extending from the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge to Muir Beach. The area, renowned for its geological features, also provides habitat for diverse plants and animals including several endangered species. The park contains significant cultural resources such as the Point Bonita Lighthouse.

Position Information

Responsibilities/ Duties:

- Assist in operation of the Marin Headlands Visitor Center.
- Research and deliver interpretive programs.
- Issue campground reservations and backcountry permits.
- Help patrol the 70-mile trail system.
- Help manage the Point Bonita Lighthouse docent program.
- Schedule docents for Point Bonita Lighthouse open houses and special tours.
- Monitor docent led activities.
- Help plan and implement special events.

Requirements:

- Enjoy working with the public.
- Interest in the natural and cultural history of the San Francisco Bay Area.
- Ability to work out of doors in sometimes adverse weather conditions.
- Must hold a valid driver's license.
- Basic computer skills are helpful.

Benefits:

- Training and experience in the field of interpretation.
- Training in National Park Service policies and mission.
- Opportunity to work with visitors from around the world.

Schedule:

This is a full time (40 hour/week) position. Intern schedules generally include weekends and occasional evening shifts. Out-of-pocket expenses and housing may be available.

Application Information:

GGNRA VIP Coordinator
Building 201, Fort Mason
San Francisco, CA 94123
(415) 561-4755

or apply online.

